

Juan de Fuca Minor Hockey Officiating Program, Summer Officiating Camp

Q&As

Q: Where will the camp be held

A: Westhills Arena Complex; including the Eagle Ridge Dryland Arena complex

Q: Are there any other camp choices over the summer for officiating?

A: BC Hockey has chosen not to offer their Osoyoos or Lake Cowichan Camps this summer, thus, the JDF Minor Hockey Officiating Camp will be a great opportunity to take advantage of training that will not be available elsewhere this summer.

Q: What is the cost of the summer camp?

A: The camp is two and a half days and is being offered for a very reasonable $200 for a first family member, and a $50 reduction for a second family member for a total cost of $350

Q: What does the camp fee cover?

A: The camp fee covers rental of facilities, swag, activities, lunches, ice time, instructors and snacks. Of note, there will be several hours of ice time and skating drills, class-room sessions to obtain your certification to referee, a mini-golf tournament, a wall-ball tournament, and dry-land training exercises.

Q: Are there any other costs associated with the camp?

A: The only other cost is the BC Hockey/Hockey Canada Certification fee. Of note, if you were a Level one official and was certified last season, due to covid 19, the fee for recertification for Level one officials is $13 for this coming season. Level two, if previously certified will be $23 for this coming season. If you have not previously certified to referee, the fee will be the regular fees set by Hockey Canada; and again, I reiterate, this fee is in addition to the camp fee of $200.

Q: How do I register for the camp?

A: Please, click on the attached link at: www.jdfminorhockey.com/form/4835; Please, note, registration is not complete until the camp fee is paid in full.

Q: How do I pay for the camp?

Also note, etransfers to JDF Minor Hockey will automatically deposit.

Q: Who do I contact if I have further questions?
